

Caring for God's House - Together Capital News

Paint Night was a great success! Lots of fun and laughs and a successful fundraiser for Caring for God's House – Together. Thanks to one and all!! Take a look at the diligent artists at work - 20 participants with proceeds of $395, yea! (Lots of happy little snowmen but we missed Bob Ross.)

We may have a repeat in February if folks are interested. Amanda Ball was the fantastic planner beyond the event; say 'thanks' when you see her! And a big thanks to Liz, Leah and Pat for helping set up and clean up!

RRPC Dress Code - any color, as long as it's green!

At the campaign launch party in mid-October about 15-20 folks clamored for a T shirt like the one Liz Bushma was wearing – and an instant fund raising program was ignited! Those initial T shirts will be distributed over the holiday!

New orders will be possible in the New Year – look for Liz taking orders after worship in the narthex by the giant & colorful tree. Delivery will be 4 – 6 weeks later. Such a great way to celebrate our fundraising efforts!
